

Community Members put on Car Show for Lake Hills Students

Chad Wild and his friends put on a car show for the students at Lake Hills School and brought their custom sports car for students to see. The group also brought pizzas for every classroom. We are grateful to the love and support from our community.

