Curriculum Council Meeting Notes

September 27, 2022

3:45pm – 5:00pm

1. Welcome

Presenter: Lisa Green

Lisa Green welcomed everyone to the first Curriculum Council meeting for the 2022-2023 school year. She talked about what the year would look like and asked that you let her know if there were any topics that you would like to add to the upcoming meetings. Lisa talked about the 15 schools that are involved in Curriculum Alignment. The teachers and administrators present said that the trainings have been very helpful, and they are working on implementing the strategies learned at the school sites.

2. Educational Services Update

Presenter: Gunn Marie Hansen and Cathleen Corella

Dr. Hansen welcomed everyone. She reminded us that the focus of our work is learning and teaching. Cathleen Corella gave a welcome as well and talked about the Data Chats that have been going on with the school administrators. The principals will bring the information back to the sites to share. She said to make sure to let your principal know if you need any resources.

3. Integrate Program at VPHS:

Presenter: Mark Kammerlohr

Mark presented a slide show about a program they are using at Villa Park High School called Integrate. The pilot is being coordinated with a colleague in New York. The program is a personal development and self-growth-based program that spans 12 weeks. Right now, they are targeting 9th grade and 12th grade AVID students.

4. Graduation Committee Recommendations:

Presenter: Lisa Green

Lisa presented a slide show about Updated Graduation Required Recommendations. The committee looked at other districts' requirements. The areas discussed by the committee were College and Career Readiness, Middle School Courses for High School Credit, English Requirements, and Math Requirements. The slide show went through all the areas and what the committee voted on. Lisa sent a link to the Curriculum Council members and asked that review and talk with others at their site and then fill out the survey she attached by the end of the day on Tuesday, October 5th.

5. Closing

Lisa Green thanked everyone for participating and the meeting adjourned at 5:30 pm
