Stakeholders

Students

Students will be able to identify potential career options that align with their interests and passions. This will help students make more informed post-secondary choices as they graduate from Radnor Township School District.

Students will assist with delivery through peer tutoring, mentoring and serving on the advisory council. A few examples of this are:

- RES: 5th Grade Hall-Monitoring Program
- WES: Elementary level (Bus Buddy Programs) 20-25 intermediate level students support all Kindergarten students (80-100), Recess Buddies (5th Grader) support the primary grades out at recess.

Educators

Educators will be aware of the school counseling program and recognize the supports that are provided. Many aspects of the current curriculum contain career components that can be expanded and more fully explored with students. This will expand the conversation of postsecondary planning beyond the school counselor. Educators will benefit as students learn about the connection between their education and long-term goals, leaving students more engaged with their education. As counselors work with students on social emotional development, students will be better able to attend and engage with academics. Educators will be made aware of counseling programs through the website and staff meetings.

Educators will have the opportunity to contribute to the school counseling program by connecting their curriculum to various aspects of career exploration, acquisition, retention, and entrepreneurship. By raising awareness to the career standards, educators work collaboratively with school counselors to further integrate these ideas into their current practices.

Educators will also be represented on the Advisory Council.

Business/community

Business and community partners will benefit by ensuring that students graduate with the knowledge and skills necessary to make meaningful contributions to the workforce. In addition, this will allow businesses to make meaningful connections with local school districts.

The school district will work towards narrowing the existing skills gap in the workforce by engaging with business/community partners.

Business/Community partners will significantly contribute to the program by providing real world experiences. Business and community partners will also be represented on the Advisory Council.

Postsecondary

Postsecondary institutions will benefit by receiving students who have participated in a well-developed counseling program that has cultivated their interests and enhanced their abilities. Therefore, students will be more engaged in their postsecondary experience. Students will also have the opportunity to explore a variety of postsecondary options, so they are better prepared to select the option that is most closely directed to their future success.

Postsecondary members will serve on the advisory council and be available to consult with counselors and students to expand our knowledge of postsecondary options. Individualized Academic /Career Plan

Demographics and Logistics:

The individual K-12 academic career plan begins in Kindergarten with career lessons for all students and will continue throughout elementary, middle and high school. Throughout K-12 students will produce pieces of evidence documenting their career plan. These documents will be collected and stored as an electronic portfolio using Smart Futures through high school graduation. Each individual portfolio will be maintained by the school counselor of record. The portfolio will contain 6 pieces of evidence from elementary school, 6 artifacts at the middle school level and 8 artifacts at the high school level prior to graduation.

Interventions and Assessments:

The self-assessments and interventions are administered as followed: Students in 3rd grade will complete a summary of their “Walk through Wayne” experience and an interview with local business owners and or employers. 4th grade will complete activities that introduces critical financial concepts and skills Smart Futures Activity # 5, Successful Work habits and Activity #15 Budgeting. The 5th grade will complete Smart Futures Activity # 2 Career Paths and Activity # 6 Risks and Rewards of Entrepreneurship. For 6th grade, students will have completed an Interests and learning styles survey. They will also have completed task regarding a Virtual Career Day presentation. The students in 7th grade will explore entrepreneurship in Road Trip Nation and complete a related task in Naviance. The 7th graders will also create their Smart Goal setting in Tech Ed. In 8th grade, the students will need to complete their Career Plan in Smart Futures, this is the culminating piece of evidence for al students moving to high school in the state of Pennsylvania. 8th graders will also finish a Cluster Finder survey prior to STEAM Day in Science. After our RMS STEAM day, the 8th graders will complete a culminating task in Smart Futures. The high school will also complete activities on job applications and job interviews and log them into their Smart Futures portfolios.

Parental Engagement

K-2 Parents are a part of helping children share about their interests through activities like: about me posters, sharing about their heritage, and participating in writing and STEM activities. Three parents participate in career exploration activity through Walk through Wayne experience by accompanying students on the visit and assisting with the interview process. In grades 3-5 parents will be encouraged to participate in classroom presentations exposing students to a variety of careers and career paths.

The purpose of our College and Career readiness plan is to engage parents and students in an open and ongoing dialogue about the student’s future. We will begin to create events and tasks in Naviance that parents and students will work on together, thus fostering the discussion about meaningful, well thought-out decision making regarding the student’s future pathway.
