Good evening Leopard Families,

This is superintendent Michele Shaffer.

As we enter winter sports' season, I want to thank all those who participated in our fall sports, activities, clubs, and events. I sincerely appreciate the hard work, time, and dedication our students, coaches, advisors, and families put in to make the fall season successful. Thank you for making Louisville proud.

We kicked off this year's Louisville Community Academy classes this fall as well. You can see pictures from our Reading Under the Lights, parent cafe, parent-child class, and adult classes on our Facebook page and on the Community page of our website. Thank you to the Walmart and GPD Foundation grants for allowing us to provide these opportunities at no cost to the community.

We have our final Senior Connection event this coming Tuesday, November 22. If you know someone who is 65 and older, please invite them to our Thanksgiving Concert put on by our high school choir members. More information can be found on the Community section of our website under Louisville Community Academy.

Also, mark your calendars to check our website on December 1 at 7:00 p.m. to register for our winter-spring classes.

Finally, there is no school starting Wednesday, November 23 through Monday, November 28.

Have a blessed Thanksgiving, and go Leopards!

Michele Shaffer
