

HEAD'S ADVISORY COUNCIL

Great schools must live up to the ideals they articulate and consistently deliver on their promises and Head of School John C. Warren '74 is committed to providing the most consequential education possible. In 2014, he created a Head's Advisory Council to meet this goal. Originally launched in Boston and New York City, he later established a Bay Area Head's Advisory Council. This group of stakeholders meets biannually in their regions and shares expertise to help identify the best leadership approach to challenging issues that confront St. Mark's.
