ANNUAL REPORT
SEATTLE COUNTRY DAY SCHOOL

July 2021–June 2022

Inspiring gifted children to reach their potential through inquiry, curiosity, and wonder
One of the pleasures of having a more normal year in 2021–22 was observing students’ enthusiastic involvement in service-learning projects. They participated in cooking sessions for local shelters, and they planned food drives. They sold cookies and other items to help the Pike Place Market Foundation. The Lower School even partnered with the International Rescue Committee to collect school supplies for young refugees.

It was a pleasure to watch this outpouring of commitment and generosity — one matched by you, their adult counterparts. With the support of our parents, guardians, employees, and friends, Seattle Country Day School’s Annual Fund broke another record. With your commitment, we held a fun, lighthearted auction last spring. And with your help, we had another good and successful year.

The spirit of service and generosity are alive and well at Seattle Country Day School, and you have my deepest thanks for your thoughtfulness to our students and our programs.

Head of School

THE AUCTION: GAME ON!

With more entertaining items to bid on than ever before, the Game On! auction was a great success, garnering more than $168,000 (gross) for school programs. In fact, this year’s raise-the-paddle helped create the Summer Inquiry Grant program, which will allow personnel to explore professional interests — ranging from supportive parenting practices to Antarctic exploration — that will also benefit SCDS.
