“5 Things Parents Should Know About Education Now: A Conversation with Myron Dueck About Student Learning, On-Going Assessment, Homework and Global Educational Trends” This event is meant to be an evening speaker session to be held in February. Myron Dueck is an educational consultant who has been working with the MSD for two years assisting teachers and administrators in grading and assessment techniques to support student learning. This event will help bring all the work the district has been doing to the forefront of community engagement. His experience in this field and work with school districts around the globe will allow for an evening filled with insightful information, strengthening community connections and a school-community partnership in line with district goals and directions. This program will take place on the evening of February 22, 2023 bookended by two professional developmental workshop days in the buildings with teachers and students. The cost will cover the evening program and the material necessary.

PK-8	$7,475.58	LLC	Reading Readiness

The project will provide opportunities to increase parent involvement for our preschool learners. Literacy programs will be created and designed to establish family reading routines for Spanish and English speaking parents and their children at all of the district’s preschool locations. The project’s goals will include increasing family reading, vocabulary development, and language development for parents and their children. Age-appropriate books for our preschool students will help in establishing daily reading routines. These reading opportunities will also teach parents how to use books to teach their children early literacy skills. There will be a Bilingual Book Club that will meet once a month from November to May. This will serve as an extension program for the graduates of the Latino Literacy Project now supported by the district and include any family in our preschool program across the district and partner site locations. These meetings will include a reading and a discussion of a book. There will be a follow up literacy activity during each session to reinforce the concepts that were introduced within the selected books. The budget for this project includes bilingual books and the coordinator’s stipend. In the past, this project has been supported by one of our donors. Our expectation is that this donor will support this project again this year.

Biotechnology

Polymerase chain reaction or PCR was invented in 1985 and allows scientists to amplify tiny samples of DNA to millions of copies in just a few hours. It revolutionized the field of biotechnology and has led to significant developments and improvements in diagnosing genetic disease, detecting the presence of viruses in the body, forensic science, evolutionary studies, and taxonomy. When first invented, each of the multiple steps had to be performed manually. Shortly after its invention, the first thermocycler machine was invented. This allowed the automation of the process so that it could be carried out in a fraction of time. Today, thermocyclers are a staple in research, diagnostic, and forensic laboratories around the world. High school students who have access to this technology not only gain a better understanding of biotechnology in general but will have an advantage in college, graduate school, and the STEM workplace. At MHS, it will be used for a variety of labs. The thermocycler may be used in other areas as well such as forensics classes, nanotechnology classes, first year Biology classes, independent research classes, AP Biology classes, and the introductory STEM classes.

EXPLANATION

Students with IEPs whose needs cannot be met in the programs that exist within the district are placed in outside private and public schools approved by the New Jersey Department of Education for students with disabilities. Attendance is monitored monthly in order to ensure students are enrolled as agreed and the state-mandated contract with each school states that two weeks' notice is required for removal of a student. Case managers make at least two visits per school year for each student enrolled in one of these schools, including one visit that involves the convening of an IEP Team to complete an annual review of the student's IEP. In order to preserve confidentiality, all students are identified only by their local and/or state identification numbers in any listing that is maintained outside the Office of Pupil Services.
