

Putnam Performance Contract

By accepting your role and signing this contract, you agree to the following terms:

- I will commit to rehearsing my choreography, blocking, and memorization at home as well as during rehearsals.
- I will pay the required $90 fee that covers our costume rentals, T-shirts, etc.
- I will not be late for rehearsals more than 3 times. At that point, I understand that I will need to have a discussion with Morse about my tardiness and that it may affect my performance, and may be removed from the performance.
- I will not miss any rehearsals that are not previously requested in my conflict form that I filled out before auditions. If I do miss a rehearsal, I understand that I need to inform Morse and my stage manager ahead of time and that I can only miss for emergencies. I understand that if I miss more than 3 rehearsals that were not previously requested in my conflict form that I will be terminated from the performance.
- I will communicate with my director as needed if I happen to need specific support during the rehearsal and performance period.
- I will treat everyone involved with this production with respect and civility, and maintain a positive attitude throughout the process. I understand that after having a conversation with Morse and my behavior does not improve, I will be removed from the performance.
- I understand that participation in this production is a privilege and I will treat it as a commitment and not as an afterthought.
