

HERRING-SPRING FAMILY SCHOLARSHIP

1. Applicant must be a graduating senior from Eaton High School planning to attend a four year college of their choice.
2. Faculty committee will review applications, select the recipient, and present the award at the annual assembly.
3. Merit and financial need shall be considered equally unless the recipient's family cannot demonstrate need through the usual financial aid network (FAF). At this junction, that student and family who have sacrificed, and saved but cannot qualify for aid will be the prime target for this award.
4. Payment will be made to the university in the student's account when evidence of "bill due" is presented.
