

Basket Arrangement Lead - this group creates all the gift baskets, including finding baskets, stuffing materials, and storing prizes for a period of time. The week before the event, they create all the baskets and work with the junior parents to find a time to meet the day of the event for handing off the baskets for delivery to Dave & Buster's.

Transportation Lead - responsible for the parent volunteers to be at RHS at the start of the event, make sure all the assigned kids are on their bus, ride the bus to Dave & Buster's, volunteer at the event, and ride the bus back, making sure all the assigned kids are on their bus again for the ride back to RHS. This group cannot volunteer for anything else before or at the end of the event so they are available when buses are ready to leave.

Casino Lead - the casino leads are in charge of coordinating the casino games and training, which is held sometime the week before the event. They coordinate the volunteers that will be working the casino games. Volunteers will be done through the sign-up genius. This position does not need to search up volunteers, but certainly can if they'd like to.

Goodie Bag Lead - this group is in charge of taking all small items or donations, such as free car washes, discounted coupons, and making goodie bags for each kid

Junior parents - these parents are learning the ropes for next year and in charge of getting baskets and goodie bags to Dave & Buster's the day of the event and working checking off seniors at RHS after graduation from approximately 8 to 11 PM

Price shopper Lead - these people are in charge of shopping for the prizes for the baskets

Publicity/Promoter Lead- this person is in charge of hyping the event, and finding ways to get all the seniors to sign up for the party

Solicitation Lead - these people are in charge of calling, or visiting the businesses assigned to Rochester high school from the recorder, this year at Stoney Creek high school, and asking them if they received their letter and are willing to make a donation to the senior all night party

Online solicitations - last year, they were successful in getting some online donations, and or university donations by calling or emailing

Big prize distribution - These people are in attendance at RHS around 5 AM when the bus is return to hand out the big prizes to the students that won.
