IV. Overview of LCAP (Sandra Garcia) 5:24pm District LCAP is here

- A. Comment: Ruben Cordova feels we need to do extra work to get parents this information and more involved.
- B. Question: Rebecca Morin - What is a stakeholder? A. An educational partner. Parents, community, teachers, students, members of union groups.
- C. Question: Quynh Bui - how does a parent get involved with the LCAP? Or is that what we are doing in DAC? A. There are several ways to get involved; Parent community input forums for the whole district. Each school also has an LCAP input session. Third, our DAC meeting in March.
- D. Question: Quynh Bui - in terms of safety, does that include security? (Referenced Uvalde TX shooting) At Painter, fences are very low. A lot of parents are concerned. A. As a committee we can bring our ideas to the table. We can advise the board to add it to the LCAP and parents can speak at board meeting.
- E. Comment: Ruben plans to study LCAP and take to each of the schools to share with parents. Offers committee to reach out to him with their ruben.santillan.cordova@gmail.com 408 390 2452
- F. Resource: <https://www.caschooldashboard.org> Wait until mid December for updated data.
- G. Question: Ruben Cordova, can you share link to LCAP

V. LCFF (Local Control Funding Formula) Categorical Budget Presentation (Sandra Garcia) 5:58pm

- A. Question: If a child is not an English Learner is their base grant lower? A. No, schools with high percentage of students that qualify get the money for all students so each student gets equal funding
- B. Question: If one school did not meet the 55% threshold, would that impact their funding? A. No, the percentage is based on the whole district.
- C. Question: Does all this money go to the schools? A. No, there is a formula that determines the allocation that goes to the school. The district keeps the rest for operating costs. SSC's will decide how to use the funds per site.
- D. Question: Title III funds, are those for bilingual students? A. Yes

VI. Review/Approve ByLaws 6:27pm
