WHY VOLUNTEER?

Volunteering is an easy way to learn more about yourself while giving back to your local community. It gives you the ability to:

- Develop leadership skills
- Build empathy and patience
- Enhance communication skills
- Strengthen your work ethic
- Explore new interests!

It's Okay to Say No

Being a high schooler is busy and the pressure to pack your academic schedule, participate in extracurricular activities, and play sports can sometimes feel like too much. It is okay to say no! Know your limitations before you cram your schedule and become overwhelmed. Choose what matters to you and say no to the activities you don't have time for.
