

Director's Note

From the Instructions for the board game, "Clue": Clue is unlike any game. All the characters are fictitious - even the "victim" is imagined. It is like a Stage Play.

From the Introduction of the play, "Clue": Clue is a "life or death" ensemble piece. It is to be played with honesty and truth.

So, which is it? Fiction or truth? Real or imagined? A play or a game?

In trying to sort out what this piece is about, we as a theatre company have discovered, ("solved" if you will), many unique and interesting elements that make up the mysterious world of Clue. The one factor that is omnipresent is that one simple yet elusive word, play. Whether onstage or on a card table in the family room, you have to PLAY Clue, and if you want to win, you have to play fast, and hard, and with a level of commitment that is truly "Life or Death".

Are you ready to play?
Let the Game begin!

Synopsis

The classic board game is brought to life in Clue: On Stage! Six guests are invited to a dinner party thrown by an anonymous host. They are given aliases -- Colonel Mustard, Mrs. White, Mr. Green, Mrs. Peacock, Professor Plum, and Miss Scarlett. Though discouraged from revealing personal information, it is soon discovered that all of them have fallen victim to the same blackmailer, their very host of the evening. Each is presented with a weapon and an option: pay their extortionist double, or kill the innocent butler. What follows is a madcap, slapstick evening full of murder, mystery, and laughs as they seek to puzzle out the culprit amongst criminals.
