TO THE CLASS OF 2017

On June 22, 2017, the Class of 2017 will enter War Memorial Stadium as students and leave that same stadium as the future of our nation.

As you go forward, remember that as important as it is to do "well", it is equally as important to do "good". Give back to the community that has given to you.

As you go forward, build your life day by day, minute by minute, making the best use of the foundation we have helped you to build.

As you go forward, know that there are no shortcuts to success. Hard work and success are synonymous with one another.

As you go forward, understand that it does not matter the house you live in, the job you have, or the money you possess. To know that someone's life has been made easier because of you is to truly live and to truly succeed.

As you go forward, remember each other and cherish the memories that are SWMHS. Remember the extracurricular activities, the proms, the pep rallies, the concerts, and the senior class trip. Use those memories and those bonds as strength and encouragement when you need it most.

As you go forward, strive to be the person that you have always wanted to be. You have something to give that no one else can.

As you go forward, never forget us as we will never forget you. Congratulations and Best Wishes to the Class of 2017!
