SUBMITTED COMMENTS (VIA PUBLIC COMMENT SIGN-UP FORM): None

Dave Horst – East Earl, PA spoke about not allowing the different government agencies dictating what the schools are doing and we the people need to stand up and not allow it to happen.

Anita Stoltzfus – Terre Hill, PA spoke about a celebration ceremony that happened at Brecknock Elementary School with her special needs student and did not get invited to this event.

Jaelyn Kulp – New Holland, PA spoke about her autistic son who went to New Holland. She pulled son from New Holland because of issues that had gone on in the school. Feels like the kids in our district are being pushed aside from those that are coming in from other districts.

Jim Buohl , Lancaster, PA – spoke on behalf of his children. Thanked the staff and administration for a great year of education for his children. He has concerns for child safety in the schools because of what happened in Texas. As a school district are going to look at what to improve on safety for the district? His 7th grader told him that there's confusion from the staff on how to deal with things and when the drills are over.

Sam Trago, New Holland, PA – spoke about Title 9 and USDA changes with school districts.
