

K-6 Options

Which is right for your student?

Google Classroom

This option works well for families wanting a classroom option with live virtual interactions with a teacher and other students.

- ★ Google Classroom is a learning platform that allows for asynchronous and synchronous learning opportunities. Teachers will establish appropriate learning schedules.
- ★ Students are required to attend live zoom learning sessions Mon - Thur according to the VLA calendar. Sessions include daily whole group and small group lessons.
 - Limit distractions during live sessions so students can focus in their classroom.
 - Communicate with teachers when student needs to be absent.
- ★ Students will access all information, zoom links, assignments, grades, communication, etc in their Google Classroom(s).
- ★ Students are required to maintain adequate progress and regular attendance.

Edgenuity-IS/Edmentum

This option works well for families wanting a more flexible learning schedule and do not want to attend live learning sessions.

- ★ Edgenuity-IS and Edmentum are asynchronous learning platforms. These platforms allow for more flexibility with at home learning schedules.
- ★ K-5 students will take courses through Edgenuity-IS. 6th grade students will take courses with Edmentum. All K-6 students will be monitored by a certified local teacher that will communicate with families as needed.
- ★ There are no required live zoom sessions.
- ★ Learning coaches are responsible for establishing a learning schedule that works for each child and family.
- ★ Students are required to maintain adequate progress and regular attendance in all content areas.

To be successful in virtual learning for both options:

- ★ Students need a consistent, dedicated adult at home to serve as a learning coach:
 - Provide a quiet place for child to learn
 - Help with virtual and physical learning tools
 - Ensure assignments are completed and turned in on time
 - Consistently communication with child's teacher

We want all students to be successful. Selecting the best learning environment and having an active and dedicated learning coach is critical to each child's success.

Communicating regularly with the teacher and school liaison is vital in making virtual learning a successful experience for your child!
