At the December board meeting, the following three board members were honored and recognized as they ended their terms on the board of education:

- Clint Junker, elected to the board in 2012, served a total of 10 years with the last five as board chair.
- David Carroll and Lori Smith, served from 2018 – 2022.

Wendy Horne was unanimously voted upon to lead the board as chair. W.G. “Dub” Potts was elected to serve as vice chair.

“We are incredibly thankful for the years of service and dedication to Davie County Schools by Clint, Lori and David,” said Superintendent Jeff Wallace. “With their steadfast focus on doing what’s best for our students, their advice and guidance helped to successfully lead us through some challenging years. I look forward to working with our new board members to continue a dedicated focus on our students and staff by engaging, equipping and empowering them to be their best.”
