SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT

*iPad Distribution went well and Final Forms are being completed

*New phone system has been installed and some final tweaks are being made to it this week.

- *Middle School had a great start with their 7th and 8th grade orientations.
- *Science Olympiad Open House is this Wednesday and Thursday at the Middle School – Grades 6-9 are welcome from 7-9pm either day to learn about S.O.
- *Great start for our youngest learners - Orientation last week in small groups 1st grade back today and KG tomorrow, PreK on Wednesday.
- *Transportation has been working hard to get everyone routed. Some minor issues with the Stopfinder app, but we're working through it and appreciate everyone's patience.
- *Food Service is working to communicate to families about the changes this year.
- *Great feedback from Friday's game. Cheerleaders raised $2000 for the Kayla Anderson Scholarship. Volleyball is planning a Serv-a-thon to raise money and many of our students have purchased shirts with the proceeds going to the fund as well.
- *TD complimented the Link Crew
