DISTRICT EDUCATIONAL IMPROVEMENT COUNCIL

AGENDA

I. Teacher Incentive Allotment – Cohort F Update

The committee was provided updates on TIA, Cohort F, and district support to be received in completing the application process. Garrett Landry from Steady State Impact Strategies will be the Technical Assistance Provider for TMISD. Next steps include creating a district Steering Committee, to be comprised of various district stakeholders, including teachers from all five campuses. Target date for the initial Steering Committee meeting will be mid-January (e.g., January 13, 2023). More information will be forthcoming when returning from Winter Break.

II. Review of the 2022-2023 Academic Calendar

The committee reviewed the SY22-23 Academic Calendar as a whole group. The following topics were discussed:

- 6 vs 9 Week Grading Cycle
- Intersession Days
- Staff Development Days
- Teacher Work Days
- Early Dismissal Days
- Summer School/ADSY

III. Development of the 2023-2024 Academic Calendar

The committee also reviewed the following parameters and conditions for developing the SY23-24 Academic Calendar:

- Consistent School Day (minimum of 460 minutes)
- Balanced Semesters
- 178 Student Days

- 187 Staff Days
- Low ADA Days
- “Banking” Minutes for School Day Closures
- Longer School Day and Trade Offs

The committee was also shared the following calendar development instructions:

1. Each campus will develop 4 calendars.
  - 2 calendars will utilize 6-week grading, with one calendar having NCJLS off.
  - 2 calendars will utilize 9-week grading, with one calendar having NCJLS off.
2. Each campus SBDM must have an opportunity to review all 4 calendars.
3. The SBDM will choose 2 campus calendars to move forward for DEIC review.
  - 1 calendar with 6-weeks marking periods.
  - 1 calendar with 9-weeks marking periods.
4. At the next meeting on January 26, 2023, the DEIC will select 2 calendars (1 6-weeks & 1 9-weeks) for the community to vote on.
5. The calendar with the most votes will be sent to the School Board for approval at the February 13, 2023 regular board meeting.
