OUR PROGRAM IS DESIGNED FOR

STUDENTS

- who demonstrate weaknesses in language processing, working memory, comprehension or organization
- who are bright and want to learn, but are falling behind
- encountering difficulty with reading, writing, spelling, math, organization or self-management
- who thrive when teachers listen and adapt to individual needs
- who are most successful when learning is active and expectations reflect their learning profile

PARENTS

- who are seeking educational experts with the experience and commitment to get their child back on track
- who want an individualized mainstream curriculum that is rigorous, well rounded, and forward thinking
- who know their child can be confident, engaged and successful
- who are searching for their child's "RIGHT" school

Our primary expertise lies in literacy and language-based learning differences. Our program is not designed to serve students with a primary diagnosis of Attention Deficit-Hyperactivity Disorder, a behavior disorder, a severe communication disorder, Asperger's, Autism; or for children who fall below the average range on measures of cognitive ability. We are pleased to suggest alternatives.

HOW we teach is as important as WHAT we teach. It is a school where DIFFERENCE can mean EXCEPTIONAL, where essential learning outcomes are identified and measured.

The Summit School is widely recognized for academic excellence and research-based methodologies. Literacy instruction is infused throughout the program and students receive explicit, individualized instruction in every subject.

Teachers maximize students' strengths and support areas of weakness. Summit empowers students and prepares them for success in high school and beyond. With a strong foundation, the possibilities are endless!

“I feel I owe my SUCCESS not to my high school, or even my college, but dating back to my 8 years of education at
