

SPANISH TEACHER, MIDDLE SCHOOL

Job Information

Job Title	Middle School Spanish Teacher
Location	Durham, North Carolina
About Duke School	Founded in 1947, Duke School has as its mission to "inspire learners to boldly and creatively shape their future." Duke School offers an exceptional project-based learning environment that seeks to develop high-level analytical and critical thinking skills in all of its students. Duke School is a preschool through 8 th -grade day school enrolling approximately 500 students.

Job Summary

Duke School offers an exceptional project-based learning environment that seeks to develop high-level analytical and critical thinking skills in all of its students. This focus compliments explicit instruction in the core academic disciplines of mathematics, science, social sciences, and language arts. Middle School at Duke School comprises grades 5-8, with each grade enrolling approximately 50 students.

The Spanish teacher teaches students in grades 5-8 in instructional groups of approximately 25 students. We are seeking an exceptional Middle School Spanish teacher to begin in August, 2023. The ideal candidate will have an education degree in Spanish and at least two years of Spanish teaching experience. The candidate should also possess a deep understanding of Middle School philosophy and practice. Being a team player and collaborator are essential attributes for this position.

To Apply

Please e-mail your resume, including a list of references along with a cover letter to teach@dukeschool.org. Diverse candidates are encouraged to apply. Compensation is commensurate with experience and abilities and reflective of local salary levels.