New Year's Reflection by St. Jane de Chantal

“We are at the end of another year. Soon, this present year will take its place among so many others that have come before it. “Time passes, the years come and go, and we come and go with them. Nevertheless, we must make a strong and absolute resolution that, if our Lord wills that we might enjoy this coming year, we will make a better use of this New Year than the many that have preceded it.

“Let us walk with a new and lively spring in our step in the service of God and one another. Let us renew our efforts to grow in our perfection. Let us take great courage to earnestly labor and master ourselves, and to purify ourselves of those things that prevent us from being more of who God calls us to be.

“It is easy to begin a New Year: it is not so easy to see it to completion. It is not so easy to put our hands to the work that God expects of us during every day of this approaching year. To begin the year without planning to tend to our labors is to run the risk of allowing yet another year to slip away without any profit to our soul. Don't let this happen to you; rather, consider how well you are making use of each and every present moment that God gives you.

“We are growing older and drawing nearer to death every day. Our days, months and years flow on, ultimately coming to an end. How should we respond to this reality? By doing all that is good and by hoping in the Lord! Let us embrace our state and stage of life as fully as we can. Let us employ the time that God gives us with great care. While we ultimately must depend and rely upon God's mercy, let us at the same time remember to do as much good as we can in the time that God gives us now.

“So, let us begin another New Year in the name of our Lord. Let us resolve to do the best we can with what ever little we possess. While God wants only what we can do, God clearly expects us to do what we can. Therefore, let us be careful to give what—in justice—is due to God and to one another. Let us do what is good, and place our hope and confidence in God's infinite compassion.”

(Based upon an exhortation by St. Jane de Chantal given on the last Saturday of December, 1629. See the original and entire text in St. Jane Frances Fremyot de Chantal: Her Exhortations, Conferences and Instructions. Westminster, MD: Newman Bookshop, 1947, page 106.)

ADVENTURES IN LEARNING

Registration for the Winter term and an Open House will take place on January 19 from 10 am-12 pm at Unitarian Universalist Church, 2709 Hunter Mill Road in Oakton. The first class will be Thursday, January 26. This program represents the educational arm of the Shepherd's Center, and provides an opportunity not only for education, but also for socialization. Not to worry, there are no tests. Classes run for 8 weeks and are held in person on Thursdays from 9 am-12 pm at the address above. They also may be attended virtually. Visit www.scnova.org for more information, or call the Shepherd's Center of Northern Virginia at 703.281.0838.

YOU'RE INVITED

The National Active and Retired & Federal Employees (NARFE) will hold their chapter meeting this Tuesday, January 10, at 1 pm at the Vienna Community Center. All members and guests are invited! The program, "How to Use Uber and Lyft to Get a Ride" will be presented by Vienna Parks and Recreation staff members Derrick Cowles and Gagan Sandu. With transportation ordered directly from your smartphone and paid for automatically, Uber and Lyft make getting around as easy as tapping a button. Whether you're taking your first Uber ride or your hundredth, this presentation will give you some tips to ensure your ride experience is as smooth as possible. The presenters will assist attendees with getting the apps loaded on their cell phones. If Fairfax County Schools are closed because of bad weather, the meeting is canceled. For information, call Chapter President Kathy Arpa, 703.205.9041.

ENCORE MOMENTS

This feature last appeared here in January of 2020. It listed useful information that had previously appeared and proved to be helpful for those new to OLGC. It also refreshed the memory of those of you who may have forgotten or whose needs have changed. It was shelved during the COVID pandemic because the Bulletin had been drastically reduced in size. It's time to revive it, and at the top of the list is knowing what to do with old greeting cards.

St. Jude's Ranch for Children continues to accept the fronts of greeting cards. They're repurposed into new cards that are sold by the St. Jude's Gift Shop. The guidelines are these: send only the fronts of cards with no handwriting on them. Due to licensing restrictions, Hallmark and American Greetings cards cannot be used. Those measuring 5" x 7" or smaller are preferred, and all themes are welcome. Mail the card fronts to St. Jude's Ranch for Children Recycled Card Program, 100 St. Jude St., Boulder City, NV 89005. You can get more information and place an order for these repurposed cards by calling 877.977.7572.

Next is what to do if you need help with future snow shoveling or have a few "to-do" tasks around the house that you need help with.

Turn to the Youth Odd Jobs List. Vienna youth sign up to be on the list to earn extra cash while helping their neighbors. The town is not responsible for setting wage expectations. Call the Vienna Community Center for more information: 703.255.6360.

Need a stair lift? Rebuilding Together Arlington/Fairfax/Falls Church now installs stair lifts for a limited number of homeowners who are in great need. You must have a straight run of stairs for the installation. There's a very small supply of stair lifts, and installations are only for homeowners in urgent need. This local nonprofit organization makes health and safety repairs at no charge for Fairfax County homeowners who qualify based on their income. For additional information and a complete list of repairs, call 703.528.1999 or visit www.rebuildingtogether-aff.org. Use this same number if you'd like to donate an Acorn stair lift.

You've asked about the disposition of tattered American flags. Here's how to dispose of a tattered American flag. The most convenient way is to slip it into a specially painted old Postal Service drop box located at Mill and Cherry Streets near the Vienna Community Center. Other locations to drop them off in specially marked boxes are the Fairfax County Government Center, 12000 Government Center Parkway in Fairfax and flag disposal boxes at the I-66 Transfer Station, and at any Fairfax County Police Station.

Elder Wisdom

As I've gotten older, people think I've become lazy. The truth is I'm just being more energy efficient.
