Happy New Year!

The new year brings new opportunities, new blessings, new challenges, and a new design to the Bulletin. You will notice that things have moved around a bit, so please take a minute to look through this issue to see where things are. If you would like to see regular features in the Bulletin, please contact Maude Hales at communications@olgcva.org with your ideas. Until then, read about all the wonderful things happening here at Our Lady of Good Counsel and consider where you might give some of your time and talents.

HAPPY NEW YEAR!

This is the first day of the first week of a brand-new year! Another chance to start over, another crack at getting it right, another opportunity for hope to nurture our spirits. I remember some of the resolutions I made when I was a lot younger; they seem trite now, viewed from the perspective of old age. It's strange how new beginnings provoke memories. Collectively, we've all been through a lot in recent years. My prayer is that these fresh new days of 2023 will bring us a little more happiness, a little more good health and freedom from worry, peace, and a lot more love. Happy New Year everyone! Let's hope it'll be kind to us!

Smithsonian National Museum of Asian Art is home to more than 44,000 objects, with strengths in arts of the Islamic world; the Ancient Near East; South, East and Southeast Asia; and the United States. For this museum highlights tour, you'll enjoy selections from diverse regions and time periods, exploring commonalities and differences in cultures, aesthetics, and ideas. This is an in-person program being shown at the Vienna Community Center Auditorium on Tuesday, January 17 from 10-11 am. There is no charge.

FREE COVID 19 TEST KITS FOR THIS WINTER

This is a new program. Every U.S. citizen is eligible to order a free at-home test kit from the U.S. government. Go to COVID.gov and click on "Order Free at Home Tests." It'll take you to a USPS.com page where you can fill out a form to order them. Each household will get one set of four rapid test kits. There's also a link to learn more about these tests, including extended shelf life and updated expiration dates. As well, there's a link to determine if the tests you have are still good. These tests are free, shipping is also free, and became available the week of December 19.

NO SEASONED CITIZENS' LUNCHEON THIS MONTH

Following the usual schedule, there will be no luncheon in January. The next event will be on Thursday, February 16, right around Valentine's Day. Until then, snuggle up and stay warm!

NEXT WEEK

Early every year I've been featuring "Encore," a list of various helpful resources to turn to every now and then, information that's been published before. Sometimes they come in bunches, other times in dribbles, depending on what else is going on. If you have a question, let me know and I'll be glad to help if I can. My contact information is in the header at the top of this page.

Elder Wisdom

"The best thing about the
'New Year', Joey, is we can all just start over."

(Dennis the Menace)

New Beginnings

When I first arrived in Alaska for my experience with the Jesuits, I had a conversation with Father Gregg Wood, who had been ministering there for the past 27 years. This discussion centered around different Jesuits' concepts of poverty. For decades, Jesuit seminarians had been sent to remote Native American villages in the Yukon/Kuskokwim Delta for a brief poverty immersion experience. Some Jesuits felt this experience should be a time for the men in formation to use no funds of their own, forcing them to fully rely on others to provide for them. For others, a poverty experience was to be placed in a foreign environment in which none of your previously developed life skills were of use. This would force the seminarians to lean on others to teach and train them new skills.

I think this is why we often struggle to take on new challenges or embrace new beginnings. Most of us don't like change, because it can make us feel poor and it can make us feel weak. It can be hard to ask for help and guidance from others, admitting we have no idea what to do. And yet, this is what God calls us to. As the new year begins, may we let go of our ego and pride, and embrace something new, trusting in God and our fellow community members to help us grow and develop new ways to glorify God in our lives.
