Good evening Leopard Families,

This is superintendent Michele Shaffer.

I can't believe we are halfway through our school year. Our second nine weeks comes to a close this Friday, January 13.

I also wanted to take a moment to inform you of a few upcoming family engagement opportunities taking place over the next month.

Our annual Leopard Leap Transition Fair, which is an event where community programs and local companies share resources with families who have children with disabilities, will take place on Wednesday, January 25 at Louisville High School from 5:00-6:30 p.m. The Royal Knights basketball game will follow in the LHS gymnasium.

We also have our second Parent Cafe of the school year, which is applicable to all ages, taking place on Monday, January 30. Our featured speaker will be Dr. Tim King. He will speak on Parenting with Love and Boundaries. He is the founder of Family Care Counseling Center and Coaching for Living. He has also been a guest lecturer at colleges and universities and is a consultant for numerous school districts in the area.

This event includes free dinner and childcare (preschool and older). You will be receiving an email with the registration link tomorrow January 9 and again on Wednesday, January 18.

Finally, we still have spots available for our winter-spring Louisville Community Academy classes. Check out our interest-based classes for adults and parent-child workshops on the Community section of our website.

We hope you'll join us for these events! Enjoy the rest of your evening, and Go Leopards!

Michele Shaffer
