"Impact and Outcome"

Happy Monday Families

We are now in the midst of facilitating our district assessment, NWEA. Our Scholars will be testing in math and reading to monitor progress from their fall assessment. Please be sure that students are in school and on time each and every day. Students should get no less than nine hours of sleep nightly in order to be more alert during instruction and strengthen cognitive skills. Please utilize the support services listed below. Also, students will begin their virtual 1 to 1 tutoring in the building beginning on Tuesday, January 17, 2023. Reminder emails will come out this week.
