237-22 PUBLIC COMMENT

Mr. Johnson mentioned buses and whether they were advertised in the newspaper.

CORRESPONDENCE:

Mr. Gue thanked administrative team regarding start of school year. Also thanked Mrs. Arbogast for securing help with hair and makeup for Prom from Mary Kay and Collins Career Center; getting donations for dresses, suits, shoes, and jewelry; and receiving donations from South Point businesses for dry cleaning services.

Mr. Gue discussed school safety and updated the board regarding communication between the district and police departments. He mentioned the safety grant worth $50,000 yearly for each building that Nick Clay put together and that we are applying for $400,000.

Mr. Ashworth introduced the possibilities of the Hero's League which is an online gaming service geared towards afterschool hours which would be a way to stay connected after school, specifically for grades 3-5.

Principal's Reports:

Mr. Graham, High School Principal. This week is homecoming and they have many activities planned for the school. Hall of Fame Inductions and dinner coming up on October 7 and 8.

Mrs. Coleman, Middle School Principal. They have established a pep club for the first time at the middle school. There is now a PTO group formed at the middle school as well. Mentioned the 8th Grade field trip to Washington DC. Finally, Mrs. Coleman mentioned that parent engagement is increasing at the middle school level.

Mr. Mathes, South Point Elementary principal. The elementary students are excited about the new football field located behind the elementary and that they are allowed to play there while the playground project is under way. He also mentioned the 4th grade field trip.

Mr. Ashworth, Burlington Elementary Principal. He gives a shout-out to his staff for being positive and upbeat, and the fact that they are running on all cylinders.

Mrs. Carpenter, Preschool Coordinator. Her preschool parents were able to come to open house and joined the PTO, which is a great start to the school year. They plan to have a grandparent's breakfast in late September and plan to start a "preschool student spotlight".

Mr. Nuckols, board member. Gave a shout-out to the South Point Band of Gold for their accomplishments at the first competition of the year last Saturday at the Rock Hill Invitational. Runner up Grand Champs, 1st in their division, 1st in percussion, and 1st in color guard.
