

Fourth Grade

In 4th grade, students grow dramatically in their writing and presentation skills. They work more independently, and set the foundation for their upper elementary education.

4th Grade Activities

- Fort Tejon living history program, an overnight field trip to experience life as a soldier in the fort: sleeping, working, exploring, and cooking
- La Purisima Mission field trip and Mission project
- Walk Through California
- Character Study: Abraham Lincoln and the Apostle Paul
- Hands on Science Experiments
- Book Clubs
- Technology: 1:2 Chromebook access for projects, writing, XtraMath, Accelerated Reader, coding, and computer skills
- Service: Lunches for homeless at Christmas, Operation Christmas Child
- Extra-Curricular Opportunities: Battle of the Books, Speech Meet, Math Olympics, Spelling Bee, Art Festival
