

RETRIEVING & INTERPRETING YOUR PSAT SCORES

Retrieving Scores

You can retrieve your scores through your Collegeboard account. If you have not created an account, you will need to do so in order to view your scores. Once logged in, you will be able to access your score report.

mysat.collegeboard.org/login

UNDERSTANDING YOUR SCORES

.....

PSAT 8/9

The Student Score Report

Total Score

The number at the top of your score report is your total score that includes:

- Possible Scores range 240–1440
- Your Score Range– Range you might get if you tested multiple times.
- Score Percentile– Click on the arrow to view the percentage of students that scored higher or lower.

Section Scores

Two section scores–Evidence based Reading and Writing and Math

- 3 Tests: (1) Reading, (2) Writing and Language, and (3) Math.
- Reading, Writing and Language are combined into one score.
- These two scores are added together to equal your total score.

Score Details

This page gives detailed information including your percentile score for each part.

- Test Scores– Includes, individual score and a college readiness benchmark.
- Cross Test Scores– Questions that make up this part of your score are drawn from all parts.
- Sub scores– How well you did on specific types of questions.

PSAT 10

The Student Score Report

Total Score

The number at the top of your score report is your total score that includes:

- Possible Scores range 320–1520
- Your Score Range– Range you might get if you tested multiple times.
- Score Percentile– Click on the arrow to view the percentage of students that scored higher or lower.

Section Scores

Two section scores–Evidence based Reading and Writing and Math

- 3 Tests: (1) Reading, (2) Writing and Language, and (3) Math.
- Reading, Writing and Language are combined into one score.
- These two scores are added together to equal your total score.

Score Details

This page gives detailed information including your percentile score for each part.

- Test Scores– Includes, individual score and a college readiness benchmark.
- Cross Test Scores– Questions that make up this part of your score are drawn from all parts.
- Sub scores– How well you did on specific types of questions.

PSAT/NMSQT

The Student Score Report

Total Score

The number at the top of your score report is your total score that includes:

- Possible Scores range 320–1520
- Your Score Range– Range you might get if you tested multiple times.
- Score Percentile– Click on the arrow to view the percentage of students that scored higher or lower.

Section Scores

Two section scores–Evidence based Reading and Writing and Math

- 3 Tests: (1) Reading, (2) Writing and Language, and (3) Math.
- Reading, Writing and Language are combined into one score.
- These two scores are added together to equal your total score.

Score Details

This page gives detailed information including our percentile score for each part

- Test Scores– Includes, individual score and a college readiness benchmark.
- Cross Test Scores– Questions that make up this part of your score are drawn from all parts.
- Sub scores– How well you did on specific types of questions.

NMSC Selection Index

Double the sum of Reading, Writing, and Language, and Math Scores

- National Merit Scholarship Corporation uses this score to initially screen students to enter the National Merit Scholarship Program.

USING YOUR SCORES

.....

Career Finder

- Create your own career road map
- Explore interests

AP Potential Tab

- A list of AP courses with an indication of how prepared you are to take that course.
- If an AP class is relevant to your desired major.

Practice

- Practice and improve your score.
- Find out what you should work on to get ready for the SAT and college.

ADDITIONAL RESOURCES

.....

For more information and additional resources, visit the College Board Website at: <https://satsuite.collegeboard.org/>