Davie County Schools Recognizes Board Members During School Board Appreciation Month

Mocksville, N.C., January 12, 2023 – January is School Board Appreciation Month and Davie County Schools (DCS) recognized its seven board members at the first school board meeting in 2023 on January 2nd.

“Our school board members dedicate many hours working to ensure all of our students have the opportunity to learn and grow in a safe and secure place,” said Superintendent Jeff Wallace, Davie County Schools. “Even though we are making a special effort during January to show appreciation for their service, we recognize their contributions reflect a year-round effort on their part.”

Serving as a link between the community and classroom, North Carolina school board members are elected to a four-year term of office and work to establish the policies that provide the framework for DCS. Davie County Schools board members include Wendy Horne (board chair), Dub Potts (vice chair), Paul Drechsler, Cammie Webb, Con Shelton, Marie Helms, and Joe Caudle.

“School boards are essential to a strong public education system, and we appreciate all that our members do,” said Wallace. “As we just welcomed three new board members in December, we look forward to a productive new year, always keeping students first in everything we do.”
