January 13, 2023

Dear Gull Lake Families and Staff,

As we begin a new year together, our mission is to engage every learner and develop their full potential. The relationships we develop with your student and with your family help us to know you better so that we can customize learning pathways to your needs. Because Gull Lake Community Schools has so many unique offerings and choices, many find it helpful to review our course catalog and programs with our staff during this season when students begin developing class schedules for the coming year.

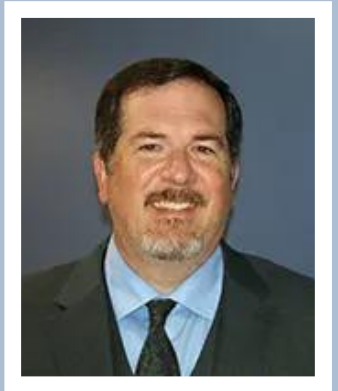

I encourage you to reach out with any questions you have during this selection process. Many of our families are surprised by the breadth and depth of our course offerings and the learning formats available. If you are newer to the District and have been hearing about some of our choices by word of mouth, our staff are standing by to assist you with your questions and are proud of what we have to offer.

Great schools, engaged families, connected community. We are Gull Lake Community Schools!

Have a wonderful weekend,

Raphael Rittenhouse/Superintendent
