

Lynn Elementary School
School-Parent Compact
531 E. Main St.
Lynn, Al 35575

2022-2023

Lynn Elementary School and the parents of the students participating in activities, services, and programs funded by Title I, Part A of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act (participating children), agree that this compact outlines how the parents, the entire school staff, and the students will share the responsibility for improved student academic achievement and the means by which the school and parents will build and develop a partnership that will help children achieve the State's high standards.

School Responsibilities:

Lynn Elementary School will:

1. Provide high-quality curriculum and instruction in a supportive and effective learning environment that enables the participating children to meet the State's student academic achievement standards as follows:
 - a. The faculty at Lynn Elementary School will provide academic instruction based on student assessment and the Alabama Course of Study
 - b. The faculty will teach classes through interesting and challenging lessons that promote student achievement.
 - c. The faculty, staff, and administrators will have high expectations for every student.
 - d. The faculty will provide meaningful homework assignments to reinforce and extend learning.
 - e. The faculty will participate in professional development opportunities that improve teaching and learning and support the formation of partnerships with families.
 - f. Meet frequently with other teachers to discuss effective teaching strategies.
2. Hold parent-teacher conferences during which this compact will be discussed as it relates to the individual child's achievement. Specifically, those conferences will be held:
 - a. Virtual Meet & Greet TBA
 - b. November 1st, 2022
 - c. By teacher request.
 - d. By request of a parent.
3. Provide parents with frequent reports on their children's progress. Specifically the school will provide reports as follows:
 - a. Progress reports will be issued every four weeks.
 - b. Report cards will be issued at the end of each nine week grading period.
4. Provide parents reasonable access to staff. Specifically, staff will be available for consultation with parents as follows:
 - a. Administrators and faculty are available for consultation with parents during scheduled Parent/Teacher Conference Day November 1st, 2022. Administrators and faculty are available for consultation with parents by appointment, before school, during teacher planning period, or after school. This allows us to schedule meeting times that will be convenient for all parties.
5. Provide parents opportunities to participate in their child's educational experience. Parents may contact the teacher or the office to schedule interactions in the educational experience.

Parent Responsibilities:

We, as parents, will support our children's learning in the following ways:

- Provide helpful information to my child's teacher concerning changes in routine that may contribute to changes at school (ie: child's interest, hobbies outside of school, activities involved in)
- I will have high expectations for my child as an individual.
- I will ensure that my child attends school daily and arrives on time.
- I will make sure my child comes to school ready to learn.
- I will make sure my child has the appropriate school supplies and materials needed for school daily.
- I will regularly monitor my child's progress in school.
- I will try to make sure my child gets enough rest.
- I will communicate the importance of education and learning to my child.
- I will check and make sure homework is complete and returned.
- I will stay informed about my child's education by promptly reading all notices from the school or the school district and sending back signed papers/forms as necessary.
- I will respect the school, staff, and students.

Student Responsibilities:

We, as students, will share the responsibility to improve our academic achievement and achieve the State's high standards. Specifically, we will:

- Demonstrate resourcefulness, responsibility, and respect at all times.
- Come to school everyday ready to learn.
- Give to my parents or the adult who is responsible for my welfare all notices and information received by me from my school every day.
- Bring necessary materials to class.
- Complete assignments to the best of my ability and in a timely fashion.
- Complete and return quality homework on time.
- Always do my best.
- Know and follow school and bus rules.
- Be responsible for my own behavior.
- Read everyday.
