

I rise each day with purpose in mind
To make a difference, to be of a kind
That builds a legacy, a life worth living
A world where all are equal, no more misgiving

I strive for peace, for non-violence too
For understanding and acceptance, the old and the new I work to create a community that's strong
Where everyone has a place and doesn't feel wrong

I know that change begins with just one person
But it takes a village to bring about a new version
Of a world where all are treated with respect
Where love and compassion are the only connect

So, I'll do my part, to make a difference here
To bring about a world that's filled with cheer
A place where all can thrive and reach their dreams
A world that's built on equality, peace, and it seems

A legacy that will last, one that we can be proud
A world that's built on understanding, not a cloak and shroud
So, let's work together, let's make a start
And build a community, with love in our hearts.

In this community, I am but one
A single voice, a single person
But together, we can make a change
For peace and equality to reign

I can impact my community
By standing up for what is right
By speaking out against injustice
And joining the fight

I can make a difference
By building bridges, not walls
By embracing diversity
And rejecting it all

I can leave a legacy
Of love and understanding
By treating all with kindness
And extending a helping hand

I can choose non-violence
To solve our problems
By listening to others
And finding common ground

Together, we can create a future
Where peace and equality abound
Where we all have a place
And our voices can be found

So let us work together
To make our community strong
To create a better world
Where everyone belongs
