

Specially Designed Instruction

What is it?

Specially Designed Instruction is the instruction provided to a student with a disability in order to help him/her master Individualized Education Program (IEP) goals/ objectives and ensure access to and progress in the general curriculum. SDI provides adaptation to curriculum content, instructional methodologies or delivery of instruction.

What does it look like in....

Accommodations or Modifications

- Modified tests/ assignments
- Note taking(photocopies)
- Extended Time
- Graph Paper/vertical lined paper
- Manipulatives
- Practice/ Use of calculator
- Study guidelines
- Peer buddy/ peer tutoring
- Oral presentation of materials/ assessments
- Assistive technology
- Advance organizers