LIBRARY UPDATES

Hello from the Eldorado Library! It's been a great start to the new year with lots of fun opportunities for our students. Third through fifth grade classes have been enjoying our "book tasting" activities, designed to help students branch out and explore new genres and books this year. Kindergarten and first grade have gotten hands on with Lunar New Year books and activities, and were introduced to our biography section. Middle school students continue to visit with their classes, engage with Eagle TV, and enjoy the library on Mondays and Fridays during recess.

And now an exciting announcement... We will be hosting a book fair this spring! For the first time in a few years, students and families will be able to shop at the beloved Scholastic Book Fair and stock up on great new books while supporting our library.

The book fair will run March 6-10. More details coming soon!

ART UPDATES

Our new Elementary Art Teacher, Lauren Menschel, is looking for parents who may be interested with helping to mount and hang finished artwork. This is not a commitment to a certain time, but rather an interest in receiving future emails about specific opportunities to help. There may be occasional work sessions in the art room and hallways. There are also mounting projects that you can do at home. There may also be opportunities to help with your child's art class during more complicated projects (mostly K-4). If you are interested in hearing about future opportunities to help via email, please contact Lauren.menschel@bvsd.org

Many thanks!

Dear Eldorado Family,

It is with mixed emotions that I announce that I will retire at the end of this school year.

I LOVE Eldorado. I feel privileged to have been a part of the original staff who opened the school in 2000. I am honored to have written our school song, We Are Eldorado. I have loved each of the thousands of students I've taught grades K-8 and the many professional colleagues who have affected me on this journey. I have directed hundreds of concerts including 22 musicals. I have always felt valued and respected and look back on my career with fondness and gratitude.

I am especially thankful to MarLynn Carson, who has been my friend, my advisor, and my musical partner from the very beginning.

AND... I am looking forward to making my health a priority, spending more time in nature, writing music, subbing for music teachers in our district, volunteering with my church, and spending more time with my family including aging parents and my two beautiful grandchildren.

My heart will always be at Eldorado,

Mr. Call,
