

Reviewing your ePDC Transcript

Go to www.paec.org and log into your ePDC account.

Once in your account, you will choose the TRANSCRIPT option under “Your ePDC Menu”

Once you are on your transcript page, you will be able to see all professional development you have registered for. You will be able to complete any outstanding surveys from this screen. Make sure that you are viewing your current validity period.

To view your current validity period points: Click on the Certificate Information option to the left. This will open your current certificate information. You will be able to view the subject areas listed on your current certificate, your validity period and all the courses you have completed with the points awarded. You will also be able to view which PD is related to special areas (i.e. ESE, Reading, etc...). At the bottom of the page is your total points earned during your validity period.

- You need a minimum of 120 in-service points to renew (Up to 2 subject areas. 60 pts needed for each additional subject area you wish to renew. Endorsements roll with your renewal).
- Does the certification information listed match your teaching certificate? If not, please make sure Lori Sandgren has a copy of your current certificate.
- You need 20 ESE in-service points to renew.
- Beginning with validity periods 7/1/2020 and newer, you will need 40 hours in reading points for renewal.
- Note: Only ESE, ESOL, and Reading may be banked.
- After your renewal date (i.e. 06/30/2020), points will start over for the next validity period.
