

AP vs College in High School

	Advanced Placement (AP) CollegeBoard	College in High School (CiHS) Duquesne	College in High School (CiHS) University of Pittsburgh
Description	Allows students to take college-level courses and exams, to potentially earn college credit or placement while still in high school. Curriculum is set by the College Board. What Is AP?	Allows high school students to simultaneously earn high school and college credit by completing courses at their high school. Curriculum is approved by Duquesne and delivered by CV teachers. Duquesne College in High School	Allows high school students to simultaneously earn high school and college credit by completing courses at their high school. Curriculum is provided and approved in conjunction with University of Pittsburgh professors, and delivered by CV teachers. University of Pittsburgh College in High School
College/ University Acceptance or Credit	Credit may be earned by passing The College Board AP Exam with a qualifying score (3, 4, or 5). Accepted throughout the nation. AP and College Credit AP College Policy Search Allows you to see which colleges take AP Exam Credit	College credit may be earned upon successful completion of course (usually a 70% "C" or better). Accepted at many colleges and universities across the nation. Contact individual colleges/universities or view their website for more information regarding if and how credit may be awarded.
Teachers	Taught by Chartiers Valley teachers trained by The College Board.	Taught by Chartiers Valley teachers who are supported by the colleges.
Location	Courses are taught at the high school by CV Teachers
Cost	Most AP exams cost $97.00 (first exam). AP Research and AP Seminar exams cost $145. The cost of additional exams for courses taken at CV will be waived.	Registration and Payment information will be provided by your teacher. Tuition for the 2022-2023 academic year is $357 per course	Registration and Payment information will be provided by your teacher. For 2022-2023 tuition is $75 per credit. Courses range from 1 to 4 credits.