Rider University Summer 2023 Westminster Conservatory Summer Programs

Registration and detailed program information coming soon!

Musical Theatre Institute – June 25- July 8

Experience what it is like being a student in the nationally recognized programs in Acting and Musical Theatre at Rider University. Through focused group and private sessions students will refine their skills in singing, acting and dancing. Lead by faculty of Rider

University, all participants will benefit from professional theatre training by working with and learning from renowned, distinguished faculty with experience on Broadway and National Tours as well as TV, commercials and film.

Game Design Academy – July 23- July 28

Rider University's Game Design Academy introduces high school students to the skills and tools used to develop digital games in a professional creative environment. Students will work with industry-standard software on the basics of digital design and game logic programming as they work through the complete process of developing a playable game that can be shared with family and friends. Concepts in system design, digital art and interaction design will be learned through hands-on creation.

Westminster Voice and Keyboard Institute – July 23 – August 5

New this summer, the two-week Westminster Voice and Keyboard Institute is designed for serious music students who want to expand their knowledge and hone their musical skills. Students choose between one of five tracks: solo vocal, choral vocal, piano, organ, and composition. This program is an excellent opportunity for the dedicated young artist to develop their craft through lessons, seminars and master classes taught by members of the Westminster Choir College artist and faculty. All students will sing in the Institute Choir working with noted conductors James Jordan and André Thomas. This program is open to students who have just completed grades 8-12.
