

Spencer Stuart's Team for St. Mark's School

Mary Gorman leads the Independent School Practice and brings deep experience in conducting leadership searches at independent schools, colleges & universities, and other nonprofits. She has led searches for the top schools in the nation and focuses on developing a process that serves the school community as well as the strongest talent. Her 20 years of work at Phillips Exeter Academy and Dartmouth College greatly inform her work.

Aaron Mieszanski is a member of Spencer Stuart's Education and Social Impact Practice. With more than 10 years of education leadership experience, he focuses on identifying, placing and developing leaders of independent schools, K-12, higher education, and other mission-driven organizations. Prior to joining Spencer Stuart, Aaron was head of admission and enrollment for Harvard-Westlake School in Los Angeles and a member of the school's senior leadership team.

Katherine (Katie) Stellato is an associate in Spencer Stuart's Education and Social Impact Practice, based in Washington, D.C. With 15 years of experience in higher education and executive search, she focuses on recruiting leaders across a broad spectrum of nonprofit organizations. The daughter of an independent school leader, she grew up on campuses and feels a deep connection to these searches.
