Calling all High School students: What are you doing after high school?

The Office of Vocational Rehabilitation, or OVR, is a state agency that helps eligible individuals with disabilities prepare for, obtain, or keep a job.

So, whether you know your path or need some help determining your plans, let OVR help with services like:

- Vocational guidance and counseling
- Tuition assistance for college or trade school

- Evaluation for accommodations in school or on the job
- Assistive technology
- Driver evaluation and training

If you would like more information or have questions, please call the OVR toll-free at 1-800-442-6343
