- New Business – Presentations for Approval 4:45 p.m.
 - a) The State We're In
 - Request for approval as Supplemental Curriculum. According to RCW 28A.230.094, high school Civics courses in Washington State must cover state, tribal, and local governments as well as the federal government. While our current core textbook, Government Alive! (for which we are seeking a renewal of CMAC approval), covers federal processes, we are in need of a common district resource that provides an overview of state, tribal, and local governments.
 - Sponsor: Jennifer Ligot/Teacher, NCHS
 - b) Government Alive 5:00 p.m.
 - Request for approval as Core Curriculum to existing approved online resources and to replace some of the print books so that we have a class set per building of the newer edition. This will fulfill many of the Civics requirements listed in RCW 28A.230.094. It addresses federal-level policies and procedures that must be covered in stand-alone semester Civics courses in Washington state.
