Good afternoon, Wausau School District Families and Staff:

Happy Friday!

As we end the week, we want to reach out to you to share an update on the restructuring conversations that are happening in the Wausau School District right now. First, if you haven't yet, please review the formal restructuring proposal that was brought before the School Board on Monday, January 23.

Important to note, is that the School Board did not vote on this proposal. In fact, they're still discussing it. Please be sure to watch the next Wausau School Board meeting, which is scheduled for Monday, February 13th at 5 p.m. That's when we'll be bringing more information and answering the questions from School Board members.

Also, we know you still have a lot of questions about the proposal and how we got to this point. To help, we've just updated our restructuring website. By logging on, you can see that we've added the results of previous community surveys (surveys done in 2019 and 2021 that specifically ask about restructuring the Wausau School District), along with a timeline of events to help you see how we got to this point, including our outreach efforts, and more.

Like we have for more than a year now, we continue to encourage you, if you haven't yet, to please get informed and involved in this conversation. It's not too late! Please look over our website, listen to the full discussions in our previous Board meetings (which are all linked on the website and are there as a resource for you), and reach out to us with your questions, concerns, and ideas. A link to submit your feedback is still available on the website. You can even share your thoughts on the proposal there as well. We'd love to hear from you!

Thank you and we hope you have a wonderful weekend,
Wausau School District Administration
