

STUDENT ACTIVITIES, ORGANIZATIONS

Students may form as many organizations as they desire as long as they are neither restrictive or secret in nature.

1. Any student organization must have an advisor, who must be present at all meetings and sponsored events.
2. Any new student organization must be approved by the principal.
3. Student activity funds shall be the responsibility of the principal of the school who shall be accountable at all times.
4. All student publications must be approved by the principal prior to publication. No censoring will be done except in cases of character assassination and obscenity.
5. Student social events must always be chaperoned and the program for any social event must have the prior approval of the principal.
