ACTION ITEM

CERTIFIED HIRE – SPECIAL EDUCATION

Mr. Skogen stated an interview with Mr. David Carpenter happened a few days ago and the administration is recommending to hire Mr. Carpenter in special education for the 2022-23 school year.

Quentin Burdick moved to hire Mr. David Carpenter as a special education teacher for the 2022-23 school year, pending the results of a background check. Samm Schermele-Varner seconded the motion; motion carried unanimously.

REPORTS

TECHNOLOGY, Scott Anderson

He will have a list of obsolete equipment that will be up for sale this summer; we will continue to advertise on the website and price them according to fair market price – it worked really well last year. June 27th is when AVI is scheduled to finish up on the Longfellow Gym.

MAINTENANCE, Mardi Brown

The football field scoreboard has been covered for the summer and Bruco will be here on Thursday to start the floor finish on the high school gym. Ingraham will be on site tomorrow to start all the abatement for the flooring and Pierce Flooring showed up to do bathroom tiles and they will do some patch work on the pool deck as well.

PRINCIPALS

ELEMENTARY PRINCIPAL, Erin Nevers

Starting to finalize schedules for the next year and putting together a draft handbook for the elementary. Finishing up the ELA order for new curriculum for next year, K-2 will be Super Kids, 3-5 will be Cornell then schedule some staff training in August before school starts.

Summer school is scheduled July 11-29 and will have Miss Mollee Stenberg and Miss Ashley Rost to help with that; going to schedule for the afternoons this year and go from 12-3pm to incorporate the summer reading program with summer school from the public library.

HIGH SCHOOL PRINCIPAL, Rob Nyby

Finalizing handbook changes for cell phones and training rules and PIR day planning and schedule being done with Mrs. Burdick.

VICE PRINCIPAL/AD, Bo Lingle

Headed to Red Lodge for MHSA meetings Sunday-Tuesday and would like the board to consider their vision for 8th grade participation as need to probably make that decision in the June board meeting. Shot clocks are being scheduled out for late fall for install since the ship date keeps getting pushed back.

Activity committee – would like to schedule some interviews for Girls Basketball before June 10th since that will be Mr. Nyby’s last day; would like it possibly Wednesday or Friday at 3:30pm so can give the applicants a call to schedule. They will look at their calendars.

SUPERINTENDENT, Aaron Skogen

June 21st is the next regular board meeting at 6pm; McKinstry would like to come to that meeting to present their results to the Facility/Finance Committee before the meeting, so would like those members to meet at 5:30pm with them.

There being no other business, meeting adjourned at 12:23 pm.
