- A teacher will notify the principal or his/her designee by 6 a.m. on the day of absence. If a teacher knows he/she will be out several days, he/she should notify the principal of the number of days he/she expects to be out as far in advance as possible.
- The teacher must make the attendance record book and the class record book, along with lesson plans, available for the substitute teacher.
- The principal or his/her designee will secure all substitute teachers. Teachers will not make such arrangements.
