Discussion of curriculum for instruction to meet the requirement of Senate Bill 9

Shelly Weber shared that the SHAC is required to review and vote on a curriculum of instruction addressing child abuse, dating violence and sex trafficking. There has been discussion at the last couple of meetings. The recommendation that was discussed at the January 9, 2023 meeting is as follows:

Elementary—Child abuse education, Speak Up Be Safe, presented by the Center for Child Protection in grades 3, 4, 5.

Middle School—Dating violence, family violence and sex trafficking, Living Well Aware in grade 6 and Big Decisions in grade 7 or 8. Goodheart Willcox textbook to cover health TEKS not covered in these two curriculum.

High School—Dating violence, Healthy Relationships as presented by the Hays Caldwell Women’s Center staff in grade 9, Family violence curriculum as presented by the Hays Caldwell Women’s Center in grade 10.

In addition, 2-3 times a year during certain awareness months the district would like to have booth displays to reinforce these topics. (January-Human Trafficking Awareness Month, February-Teen Dating Violence Prevention Month, April-Sexual Assault and Child Abuse Prevention Month, October-Domestic Violence Prevention Month)

Ty Davidson stated that the Goodheart Willcox textbook is online. He also stated that there was a presentation last week to review the curriculum in the textbook.
