FEDERAL PROGRAMS REPORT

Dr. Lenni Nedley gave the Federal Programs Report.

BOARD REPORTS

Central Westmoreland Career and Technology Center Board – Mrs. Robin Savage gave the CTC report. Next year will be the highest enrollment that the CTC has had. One CTC student will be competing in nationals next Wednesday in California for Culinary.

Westmoreland Intermediate Unit – Nothing to report.

Greensburg Salem Education Foundation (GSEF) – Lynn Jobe gave details about the Foundation's Distinguished Alumni Banquet that was held on June 17, 2022 at Lakeview. It was a successful, positive event and such dedication and pride for GS was displayed by the attendees. Alexanna Rodgers, Megan Hess, Zach Harr brought young enthusiasm to the organization. Lynn thanked all who helped put the even together.

Greensburg Community Development Corporation – Brian Conway reported that the GCDC hasn't had a meeting since the last one in May. A G-Fund Committee meeting will be coming up. The new Executive Director has started - he was a former intern for the organization. The Hometown Hero Celebration was held last month. It was a great event honoring all of our Hometown Heroes, including military and non-military heroes. The next board meeting is in August.

COMMITTEE REPORTS

Education Committee – Emily Miller announced that the committee has had no new meetings, but will be coordinating a meeting with Dr. Bissell.

Facility Committee – Jeff Metrosky gave the Facilities Committee report. Three different architectural firms presented their plans for a proposed locker room. Estimated costs ranged between $1.5 million and $3 million. Nothing has been decided yet, as the Board is still discussing their options. Dr. Bissell added that the District will be moving forward with the replacement of the chillers at both Nicely and Metzgar. At the middle school, the Board will have to look for bids to see what can be done to air condition the entire building.

Policy Committee – No report at this time.

SOLICITOR'S REPORT

No report at this time.

SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT

All appointments are pending governmental clearances, certification records, physical and tuberculin tests where applicable.
