

girls who code

Girls Who Code helps girls learn the basics of Computer science. Women make up only 28% of the workforce in science, technology, engineering, and math. Girls Who Code aims to close the gender gap in technology, and the change can start with you!

Meetings will be held virtually on Mondays from 4-5, starting March 13th, and ending on May 22nd. No prior experience is required!

