Jo Di Bona is a highly acclaimed street artist who has made a name for himself with his bold and thought-provoking works of art. With a career that spans over two decades, Jo Di Bona has created iconic murals and street art installations in cities around the world, including New York, London, Paris, and Berlin. He is known for his ability to connect with communities and bring people together through his art.

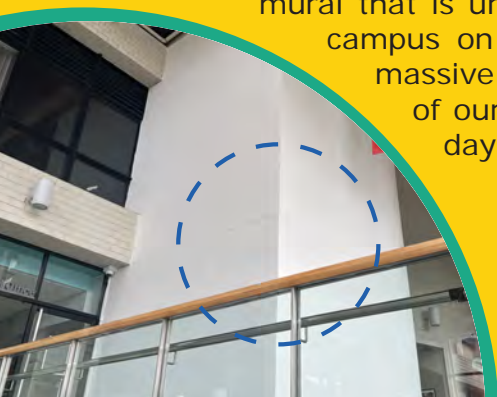

Jo Di Bona

What makes this project UNIQUE

Jo Di Bona has teamed up with the Canadian International School of Hong Kong (CDNIS) to create a one-of-a-kind community mural. This collaboration will bring together the vision and values of students, staff, and the wider community to his creation of the mural that is unique to CDNIS. He will come to our campus on March 20 to paint his design on a massive scale to transform the wall at the top of our spine staircase over the span of 10 days!

How you can support

To join us in creating a lasting impact, we are inviting sponsors to help

- recover the cost for this unique and meaningful project
- fund future art initiatives at CDNIS including
 - Artist in Residence programmes for students across the whole school to celebrate and connect with local and international talent
 - Arts projects in partnership with local NGOs to raise awareness of important causes and help communities in need
 - Performance and exhibition opportunities to celebrate our students locally and internationally
