THE SCHOOL AND COMMUNITY

Mt. Greylock Regional School is a six-year, public secondary school comprising grades 7-12 located in the college town of Williamstown in the northwest corner of Massachusetts bordering New York and Vermont. The regional district comprises two communities, Williamstown and Lanesborough, representing a combined population of approximately 10,944. Located in the Berkshires, Williamstown and Lanesborough are rural in character. The area's principal industries are tourism, education, and medical services. The school population benefits from local resources such as Williams College, the Clark Art Institute, Mass MOCA, Massachusetts College of Liberal Arts, Berkshire Community College and Berkshire Medical Center.

ACADEMICS
