Title

Recognition of Etowah High School Senior Savannah Bray -- 2019-20 Gatorade Georgia Volleyball Player of the Year

Requested Action

School Board Recognition of Etowah High School Senior Savannah Bray -- 2019-20 Gatorade Georgia Volleyball Player of the Year

Summary Explanation and Background

The Gatorade Company named Etowah High School senior Savannah Bray as the 2019-20 Gatorade Georgia Volleyball Player of the Year. The prestigious award recognizes the best volleyball player in the state, who must also show "high standards of academic achievement and exemplary character demonstrated on and off the field."

She now is eligible for the Gatorade National Volleyball Player of the Year, which will be announced later this month.

She set a State record with 2,304 kills and has been named AAAAAAA Player of the Year, Georgia Volleyball Coaches Association Player of the Year, PrepVolleyball.com Georgia Player of the Year, and Cherokee Tribune Player of the Year.

Savannah plans on attending the United States Military Academy, where she also will play volleyball.
